About Priority Cares / QH Staffing

Hello, and thank you for your interest in the Social Worker position with our team. Whether you're applying through Priority Cares or QH Staffing, you're looking at an opportunity to use your clinical skills where they matter most — in the community, with individuals and families navigating some of life's hardest moments. Our social workers serve home care clients, DHS shelter residents, and community health patients across New York City. You might be helping someone access Medicaid benefits one day and conducting a discharge assessment the next. No two days are the same, and that's exactly what makes this work so fulfilling. We welcome both LMSW and LCSW candidates, and we offer supervision hours for those working toward licensure advancement. Full-time and per diem positions are available. If you're a licensed social worker who wants your work to have direct, visible impact — apply today. Let's talk about how we can match you with the right setting. ---
